

Economic data available at the GDB website

<http://www.gdb-pur.com/index.html>

The Economy section of the website presents economic information of Puerto Rico in different formats: summarized, detailed, by theme, etc. Here is a brief explanation of some of the sections (and their contents) that we think will be more helpful as an introduction to the Puerto Rico statistics.

Puerto Rico Economic Indicators – Summary

<http://www.gdb-pur.com/economy/documents/PREI011117.pdf>

This four page publication (in PDF format) contains nearly 150 key indicators in Puerto Rico's economy, and compares data from the most recent month with the preceding month, and with the same month from the previous year. It also features a cumulative, year-to-date analysis for all of the indicators, and a comparison with the same period from the prior year. The statistics included in this publication are the same as the ones presented in the next entry. Please refer to the next for details.

Puerto Rico Economic Indicators – Time Series

<http://www.gdb-pur.com/economy/pr-monthly-economic-indicators-time-series.html>

This report contains a selection of nearly 150 key indicators in Puerto Rico's economy, and for comparison purposes present monthly data for the last ten years. Major indicators include, among others, labor, prices, manufacturing, and trade data. The format and content of the tables include two separate 12-month percent and net change sections, and a data summary with yearly and cumulative year-to-date analyses. The indicators are grouped by category and each category is an Excel document. The indicators contained in each category are:
